

STORIES ABOUT PEOPLE AND PLACES

CARTERTON TARATAHI 2-3 JULY 2022

Our Carterton programme of events includes short and feature films, filmmaking workshops, radio broadcasts and podcasts, as well as guest appearances from local filmmakers.

FILM PREMIERE NIGHT SATURDAY 2 JULY 2022

Wairarapa Film Festival presents a special double-bill of local film accompanied by special guest speakers. Tickets are available now from the Carterton Events Centre.

Doors open: 6:30 pm | Event starts: 7:00 pm

SHORT FILM: OUR MONEY (2022)

Director: Luke Ross

Music Composer: William Philipson

Featuring: Helen Dew

Logline: 83 year-old Helen attempts to establish a local currency in Carterton with the help of her working group.

FEATURE DOCUMENTARY: HIGH TIDE, DON'T HIDE (2021)

Directors/Producers: Niva Kay, Emily McDowell, Nia Phipps, Phil Stebbing

Music Composer: William Philipson

Logline: In the race for existence, striking teenagers discover that activism, authority and awareness make for a steep learning curve.

FILMMAKER'S WORKSHOP – SUNDAY 3 JULY 2022

Wairarapa Film Festival presents a special Filmmaker's Workshop facilitated by Filmmaker Luke Ross and Music Composer William Philipson. This event will be hosted at the Rangatahi Hub, at the back of the Carterton Events Centre.

Doors open: 2:00 pm
Event starts: 2:15 pm

WORKSHOP DETAILS:

We will be screening the short film OUR MONEY, directed by Luke Ross and with music composed by William Philipson. Utilising this film as our model, Luke and William will guide you through the processes of creating and producing a short film. You will learn about film production as well as film funding options. You will gain valuable industry knowledge on how to make a short film in Aotearoa New Zealand.

BOOK YOUR TICKETS NOW FROM THE CARTERTON EVENTS CENTRE – in person, online or by telephone reservation: 06 379 0481 | www.cartertonec.co.nz/whats-on waifilmfest.co.nz WairarapaFilmFestival waifilmfest

